

Miss Jordyn's Bio

Jordyn started tap dancing at the age of 11 & fell in love with dance. She studied on scholarship with the Joffrey Ballet in New York, Los Angeles, & Las Vegas. In High School, she was awarded the Orange County Cappie for Best Dancer as "Dream Laurie" in San Juan Hills' (SJH) production of Oklahoma. She also received dance scholarships through SJH's modern dance conservatory. She continues to pursue dance as a career as evidenced by her performances with American Ballet Theater's world premiere of Sleeping Beauty at the Segerstrom Center & her recurring role as Holly in NBC's series This Is Us. Jordyn graduated in 2021 Cum Laude with a BS in Molecular Biology & a Dance minor from Chapman University. Post-graduation, she has been seen dancing in Farmer's Insurance commercials & thesis films (An Ocean Apart, Moonlight Dancer). Spending time off from the screen, Jordyn has choreographed and traveled for thesis and independent films (The Ballad of Rose Mae, Moonlight Dancer). She is honored to serve as assistant director of the ballet conservatory for the 2022-2023 season.
