

Miss Nathalie's Bio

Nathalie started dancing at the age of 8 at Dance Works. From there she attended the Orange County School of the Arts and went on to graduate from the University of California Los Angeles with a double Bachelor's degree in History, and World Arts and Cultures with a Dance Emphasis. After college she followed her dreams of moving to New York City and auditioned for countless Broadway shows and trained with The Radio City Rockettes for five summers. While obtaining her Dual Master's Degree in Global History from Georgetown University and King's College London, she served as Rehearsal Director and choreographer for the King's College London Dance Society and Competition Teams. Nathalie believes in actively pursuing her own dance education and is currently learning partner and vintage styles such as swing, Latin ballroom, and vernacular jazz which she loves to incorporate into her choreography.
